

COOPERATIVE ECONOMIC INSECT SURVEY REPORT

Glenn A. Salsbury, Survey Entomologist

Report 6, Volume 54

7 April, 2006

ARMYWORM: Several moths have been caught in traps this past week in Kiowa County.

WHEATHEAD ARMYWORM: Three moths were caught in a light trap on 6 April in Kiowa County.

LESSER SHOTHOLE BORER: 16 borers were caught in a canopy trap the week of 3 April in Comanche County.

APHIDS: This was the most common insect reported in greenhouses this past week.

FORAGE LOOPER: Strong flight currently underway in Kiowa County.

YELLOWSTRIPED ARMYWORM: One moth was caught in a light trap on 6 April in Kiowa County.

MONARCH: First of the season was noted on 6 April in Greensburg.

APHIDS (various species): Some spraying has been done for aphids in alfalfa in the Kiowa County area.

Contributors to this report: Allison, Salsbury, Buhler, White, Hilbert, Copeland